Dear Harlan,

We are having another Midcareer Course which starts on the 11th of January and I am very hopeful that your schedule and activities at the United Nations might make it possible for you to talk to this group at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, 11 February.

I thought that your address to the United Nations Association, which you so kindly had sent to me, had a tremendous amount of interesting material in it. While we could obviously distribute this to the students, it would be most valuable to them to hear from you directly. Further, I think if you could analyze the major issues facing the United Nations in the foreseeable future, it would be of great benefit. As you know, your talks always receive top rating by the students so I hope you can do it.

With very best wishes as always,

Sincerely yours,

s Kirk
